was paid in as railroad taxes for the year. The time limit for receiving taxes from the railroads and canals expired yesterday. The time limit is fixed by law at November 1, but that day falling on Sunday this year made it compulsory to settle on Saturday. The total receipts for the day amounted to approximately $800,000. The Virginia Railway and Power Company paid in $41,160.60, and the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company $41,000. Other railroads paying large amounts were: Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio, Virginia, Seaboard Air Line, Louisville and Nashville, Baltimore and Ohio, Washington Southern, Surry, Sussex and Southampton, Clinchmati and Western and Danville and Western. In all cases an advance in taxable values over last year is shown by the amount of taxes paid. Miller & Rhoads
